AYUDHA POOJA CELEBRATION

Date:14/10/2024

Introduction

The Ayudha Pooja, a significant festival in Hindu culture, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and devotion at R R College of Pharmacy on 10/10/2024. This festival, traditionally observed as part of the Navaratri celebrations, honors tools, instruments, and equipment that aid individuals in their daily lives and professional work.

Purpose of the Celebration

Ayudha Pooja signifies gratitude towards tools and implements, emphasizing their importance in human endeavors. It is a way to seek divine blessings for success, productivity, and harmony in life.

Description of the Event

The celebration commenced with the traditional cleaning and decoration of tools, machinery, and vehicles. Participants adorned their tools with flowers, turmeric, vermilion, and other sacred items. The ceremonial rituals began at 10:00 a.m. led by Sri. Y Raja Reddy sir, Chairman PKMET®, Sri. Kiran H R, Secretary, PKMET®, Sri Arun H R, Director, PKMET®, and Dr. Narayanaswamy V B, Principal, who conducted a formal pooja.

Devotees offered prayers and performed rituals to invoke the blessings of the divine. A special focus was given to promoting respect for work and tools, aligning with the festival's spiritual essence.

The event also included distribution of sweets. These activities added to the festive spirit and brought the community together.

Participation

The celebration saw active participation from all the teaching & non-teaching staff with students. The event highlighted cultural traditions and fostered a sense of togetherness and gratitude.
